

THEY TORE IT DOWN!

The Younger Fire Trap on Church Street Is Torn Away.

What The Globe Has Howled for in Months Long Gone.

MANY OTHER TRAPS SHOULD GO

People Who Come and Go—Brief Reviews of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

After weeks and months of howling, of yelling and of screaming the old Younger paint shop on Church street has been pulled down.

This building has been the most inviting of all the numerous fire traps in the city, and to know that it has been taken away is a real pleasure.

Whenever those in charge of the city's affairs demonstrate the fact that they are attempting to clear up the rubbish, then it will be that insurance companies will hazard risks at a decent premium.

With our water supply and with our electric fire alarm system and our volunteer hose companies, there is no real reason why those who insure should pay such extravagant premiums.

Insurance companies have been frightened because of the old shells which have been left on public streets and which are veritable fire traps.

In the removal of the Younger building there is good reason for several days' rejoicing.

The Day's Record of Current Events in the City and Vicinity.

—Dr. Yates will fill the pulpit at Trinity church to-morrow. Morning and evening.

J. T. Newton, of Wake Forest, will fill the pulpit at First Baptist church to-morrow.

—Read Ellis, Stone & Co's announcement to-day and wait for the spring opening.

—W. A. Slater & Co. are on the corner of Main and Mangum streets, and have all sizes of the Manhattan shirt.

—The Yam Farm is just now receiving its spring coat of Tar. These who have tar to spread should prepare to spread it now.

—When Colonel John Pinnix moves off Alston avenue, he will then become proud, and haughty and gay, and we will not speak to him.

—From announcement published to-day it will be noticed that the First National Bank is in a prosperous condition and that it is in the hands of men who understand their business.

—Michaels & Co. are introducing something new in advertising, which is attracting general attention and meeting the approval of all readers. Michaels & Co. have not only the handsomest drug store in the state, but one of the largest and most complete stocks of drugs this side of Baltimore. They will make things lively in the drug line from this on.

—E. C. Young, of the Guy Brothers Minstrel company, paid us a pleasant call this morning. This popular company will be at Stokes Hall Monday evening. Durham people will remember their entertainment here last April and read this announcement with unusual pleasure. The Guy Brothers give a good show and always draw a full house.

—Always attractive, Shelburn's photographic studio is now doubly so. Mr. Shelburn, who is enterprising and progressive and always keeps up with the procession, has just had his rooms completely overhauled—newly papered, newly furnished, and equipped with all the latest improvements known to the profession. The studio now presents an appearance which is at once handsome and metropolitan, and the work turned out is in keeping with the apartments. Durham may justly feel proud of this institution, and she is.

COMING AND GOING.

Durham People on the Move and Visitors in the City.

Mr. J. B. Cobb, of Danville, is in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bradsher are visiting friends in Granville.

Mr. P. H. Gorman left to-day for a visit to his brother at Chase City, Va.

Mrs. J. R. Patton left to-day for Red Mountain to visit her mother Mrs. George W. Jones.

Mrs. C. M. V. Follette left to-day for the North where she will spend several weeks laying in her stock of spring millinery and getting ready for the spring trade. People who wear bonnets are recommended to wait for Mrs. Follette's return.

Y. M. C. A.

What Will Be Done To-morrow Afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

The following programme has been arranged for the young men's meetings in the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 4 o'clock on the Sunday afternoons of this month. Topic for the month: "Essential Elements of Christian Character."

March 6, Faith, Hebrews xi. Address by Rev. R. C. Beaman.

March 13, Hope, Hebrews vi, 18-20. Address by Mr. W. H. Muse.

March 20, Love, 1st Cor. xiii, 1-13. Address by Mr. Leo D. Heatt.

March 27, Steadfastness, 1st Cor. xv, 58. Address by Mr. J. H. Southgate.

The singing to-morrow afternoon will be in charge of the choir of the First Baptist church, under the direction of Mr. J. M. Whitted, and it is proposed to have the other church choirs lead the singing the remaining Sundays. The music to-morrow will consist of an anthem by the choir and a solo and trio by Mrs. H. H. Markham and Messrs R. E. White and T. E. Cheek.

Mrs. Whitted will preside at the piano and will be assisted by an orchestra composed of Messrs. T. E. Cheek and Will Dowd, cornetists; Mr. Arthur Davis, violinist, and Mr. John Seeman, clarinetist.

All young men are cordially invited to hear Mr. Beaman to-morrow.

Secretary White will give the boys a bible reading at 3 o'clock. Subject, "Seven things that God hates." Miss Annie Ramsey will play the piano at this service. All boys are invited.

HEART CRUSHED BY GRIEF.

Misfortunes Drive a Wilmington Pioneer Home.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 2.—Henry Patterson told a sorrowful tale at the Union Station this morning. With his bright-faced 17-year-old son, he was on his way to his former home in Wilmington, Del. Six years ago he left that place to locate in the far West.

"I went to Washington then a territory," said Mr. Patterson, "and placed all my savings in a farm a short distance from Colfax. Everything seemed to prosper and I had taken a decided liking to the country. It was about a year ago that a dreadful occurrence, that has cast a shadow over my life that time can never dispel, blighted all my hopes. One night the house caught fire when we were asleep. Together with my wife and son we barely got out of the burning building with our lives. We were unable to find my little daughter, who had become awakened by the smoke and wandered from the room. She perished in the flames which destroyed all our possessions. My wife shortly after died as a result of the exposure she had received."

BURGWYN VINDICATED

The Vance County Statesman Again Bobs Up Sincerely, as He Should.

HENDERSON, March 4.—Judge L. R. An's court has been occupied yesterday, and to-day at 11 o'clock, trying the case of Cossack & Co. vs. The Henderson Tobacco Co., in which it was attempted to defame Col. W. S. Burgwyn a partner in the defunct Henderson Tobacco Co. The judge instructed the jury to find that he "did not," and they did not leave the box—the court virtually made the verdict. Colonel Burgwyn was represented by Captain Peebles, of Halifax.

ARE YOU IN IT?

A Chance for Every Man to Live in His Own House and Be Happy.

Dr. J. L. Watkins, who during the past year has added many desirable new residences to Durham, all of which have been sold on reasonable terms to people wishing nice but inexpensive homes, now offers to build on best lots, beautifully located, any style of house you wish and sell on one, two and three years' time. This is an opportunity to get a home which should not be allowed to pass you. See Dr. Watkins at once and get his figures.

Some Foolish People.

Allow a cough to run until it gets beyond the reach of medicine. They often say, "Oh, it will wear away," but in most cases it wears them away. Could they be induced to try the successful medicine called Kemp's Balsam, which is sold on a positive guarantee to cure, they would immediately see the excellent effect after taking the first dose. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial size free. At all druggists.

BOB IS STILL IN IT!

Reports of R. R. Bridgers' Death Seem to Be False.

At Least He Wires That He Is Alive and Kicking.

WILD CASE OF MISTAKEN IDENTITY

Something Concerning the March Program of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Wild rumors float and they sometimes become deep seated.

Durham was startled to-day by the announcement that R. R. Bridgers, division superintendent of the Western North Carolina railroad, had been killed.

A trainman brought this information, but it proved to be, as we newspaper men would say, a fake.

Mr. Bob Bridgers telegraphs his friends in this city that he is still in the land of the living and doing very well, thank you.

Whether or not any man was killed, as reported by the trainman, has not been proved. Up to the hour of going to press his name has not been learned.

WANT MORE COLONELS.

And Incidentally Suggest That a Few More Doctors Would Be the Staff.

The following is official from Chapel Hill: The University faculty have decided to confer no honorary degrees at the next commencement. This is wrong. To the list already established should be added the most popular of all titles, "colonel." Let the good work go on. In Spain every third man is a nobleman. Give us more "doctors" and "colonels."

Rev. Wm. Hollinshead.

Pastor of the Presbyterian church of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily writes strongly in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla. He says: "Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver or clean the stomach like this remedy. I know of scores and scores who have been helped or cured by it."

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy, yet efficient, action.

Without a doubt this medicine will cure you. It has cured thousands. Take Simmons Liver Regulator.
